8. SELECTION OF CANDIDATES: -

Selection shall be made strictly on the basis of a written Entrance Examination to be conducted by the selection committee as per the following procedures & the candidate has to secure minimum 50% qualifying marks in the entrance examination.

[a] Scheme of examination: The entrance examination will consist of two papers, each containing 90 objective type [Multiple Choice ] questions and total 180 questions. Time 3.00 hours.

[b] The syllabus will be different for the candidate appearing for Medical Superspecialities and for those appearing for Surgical Superspecialities.

Medical Superspecialties

Paper I (i)Medicine (ii) Pediatrics (iii) Pathology of Post Graduate level.

Paper II- Will cover the questions related to the Medical Superspeciality subjects of Post Graduate level.

Surgical Superspecialties

Paper I- (i) Surgery (ii) Orthopedics (iii) E.N.T (iv) Pathology of Post Graduate level.

Paper II- Will cover the questions related to the Surgical Superspeciality subjects, which will be of Post Graduate level.

[c] Evaluation of answer sheet

There will be two sets of the question paper one for DM and another for M.Ch. For each question, four suggested responses will be given as choices A, B, C and D, of which only one will be the MOST APPROPRIATE ANSWER.

An answer sheet (OMR type) will be provided separately along with the question booklet. Against each question number there are five circles named as A, B, C, D & E. The candidate can fill any one circle as per his/her answer (out of A, B, C, or D) or if the candidate does not know the answer and want to leave the question then he/she has to fill the circle 'E' only and will be awarded 'Zero' mark for the same question. If in a question no circle is filled in i.e. left blank then '-1' (minus 1) will be awarded to the same question. Read the instructions carefully, provided on the answer sheet for filling up and answering.

Important: (i) At the end of the examination, candidate should hand over both the question booklet and answer sheet to the invigilator. (ii) Any malpractice or attempt to commit any kind of malpractice in the examination will result in the disqualification of the candidate and withdrawal of candidature.
